

The Polar Museum Visual Story

Welcome to the Polar Museum.
The museum is free to look around.

There are double doors to get into the main museum entrance and three steps to climb.

If you can't manage stairs, there is a side entrance with a ramp.

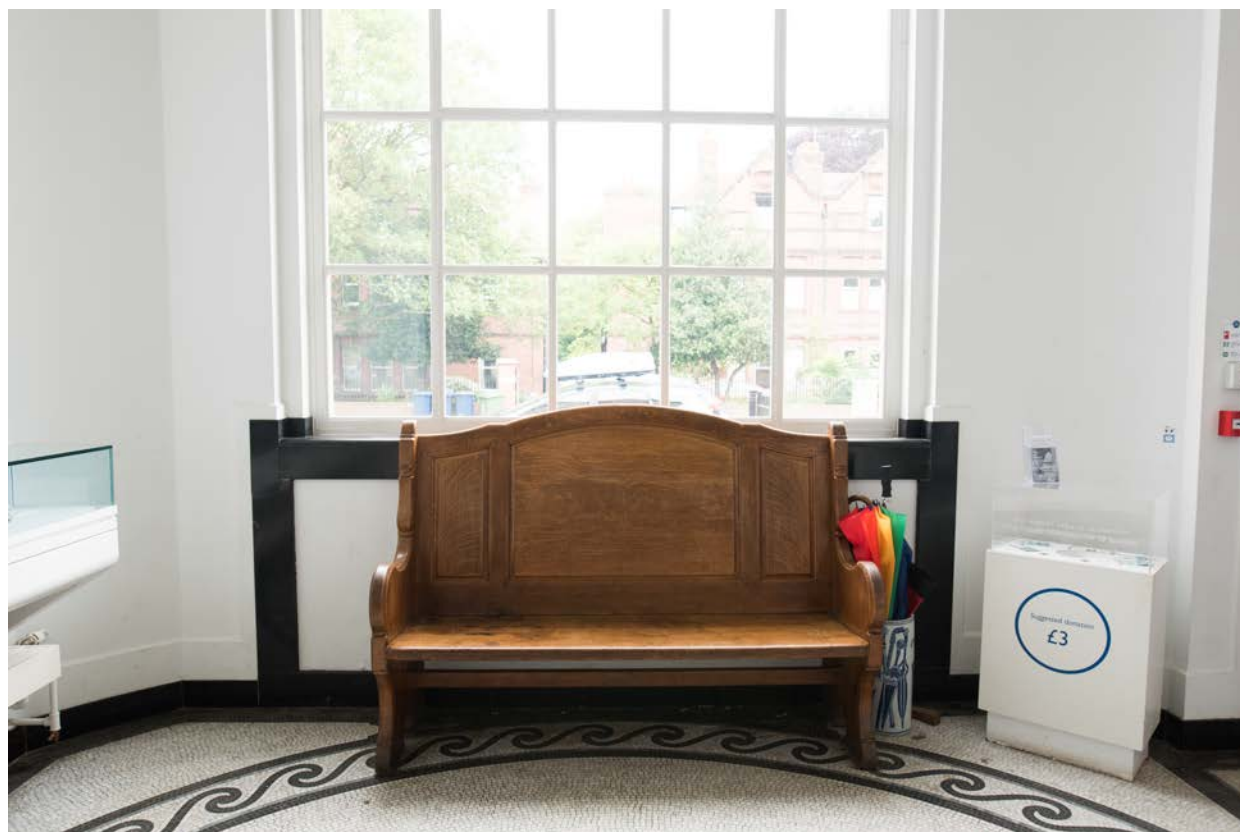

There is a welcome desk in the gallery. Staff can answer questions.

The toilet is through the glass doors and across the foyer area.

If you get tired there are benches in the entrance hall.

Our staff are at the welcome desk.

Everyone is here to help and answer any questions you might have.

We have a shop next to the welcome desk where you can buy a selection of things to take home.
